The Punyashlok Ahilyabai Holkar Garden Ghats and Amphitheatre has introduced a culturally rich and visually serene landmark to the Yeoor-Upvan region of Thane. Modelled on the iconic Banaras Ghats, the development blends traditional architectural charm with peaceful natural surroundings, offering citizens a meaningful public space to unwind.

The project, developed by the Thane Municipal Corporation, has been strongly supported and actively followed by Shri Pratap Sarnaik, ensuring its planning, beautification, and cultural vision were executed with precision and quality.

Key Highlights

- Banaras-inspired Upvan Ghat along the lake
- Green garden areas for leisure and walks
- Amphitheatre designed for cultural performances
- Musical fountain enhancing Upvan Lake's appeal

Dedicated to the legacy of Punyashlok Ahilyabai Holkar, the revered builder of many of India's historical ghats and temples, this development stands as a proud blend of heritage, culture, and community enrichment in Thane, strengthened by the consistent efforts of Shri Pratap Sarnaik.
